

The Letter to the Philippians
Group Project: Responding to Paul

The Apostle Paul has taken time during his imprisonment to write a letter to your church. In it he celebrates God's work through him: how, in spite of his suffering, the gospel is spreading. He also encourages your church members to several significant actions.

- Your assignment is to take on the role of the membership of the church at Philippi and to respond to Paul with return letter.
- Choose a representative to read your letter to the group
