

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only begotten Son of God;
begotten of his Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light, Very God of Very God;

begotten, not made;
being of one substance with the Father;
by whom all things were made:

who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven,
and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary,
and was made man:
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate;
He suffered and was buried:
and the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures:
and ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of the Father: and
He shall come again, with glory, to judge the quick and the dead;
whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord, and the Giver of Life,
who proceedeth from the Father and the Son;
who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified;
who spake by the Prophets:

And I believe in one Catholic and Apostolic Church:
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins:
And I look for the Resurrection of the dead:
and the Life of the world to come.
Amen.

The Nicene Creed was prepared at the Council of Nicea (325 AD), which was held to clarify the relationship between Jesus Christ and the Father.
